SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

25X1A2g The following report supplements information furnished in [REDACTED]

1. After having been in existence for about three months, the Union Progresista de Mujeres (UPM - Women's Progressive Union) is now reported to have 110 members.
2. Etelvina Villanueva, president of the group and a member of the Partido Izquierda Revolucionario (PIR - Leftist Revolutionary Party), made a trip to Oruro during the first of December. The purpose of this trip was to recruit new members for the UPM, as part of the PIR's intensive campaign to gain influence over the women of Bolivia.
